“... a very warm and enthusiastic Teacher, who inspires his pupils to explore the voice in a spirit of fun”

-Guillermo Rozenhuler

Michael is a working professional singer who also leads choirs and workshops in South Yorkshire. He teaches body awareness through movement, improvisation and “circle-singing”. His emphasis is on well-being, fun and community.

As a professional singer, Michael’s repertoire ranges from the Renaissance to today’s radio hits, but focuses on popular music from the 20th Century. He has sung on the main stage of several European Music Festivals and composes music for special occasions.

Available for solo performances, workshops, & community projects.
